

Sosua

Dominican Republic

Students at the beach, Sosua

The Dominican Republic's breathtaking natural beauty, combined with the incredible friendliness and hospitality of the locals makes this the perfect travel-study destination.

Our school in Sosua stands in its own grounds, surrounded by tropical gardens, just 2 minutes' walk from the beach. The school has on-site studios, with private bathrooms, televisions and kitchens. Or students can stay in nearby private apartments, with swimming pool. As well as standard Spanish courses, our school in Sosua offers Spanish and Windsurfing/ Kitesurfing courses. There is also a 'Travelling Classroom' course: a 2-week Spanish tour of the Dominican Republic, starting and finishing in Sosua, taking in the mountains of Jarabacoa, Santo Domingo and the beaches of Las Terrenas. Lessons, transport and hotel accommodation are included.

Nearby beach 'Boca Chica'

Santo Domingo, capital of the Dominican Republic and the oldest Hispanic city in the Caribbean, dates back to the time of Christopher Columbus. The city is full of places of historic interest, with one of the most beautiful beaches in the world, Boca Chica, just 30 minutes' drive away. We have 2 schools in Santo Domingo: Our Option 1 school is located in the centre of Santo Domingo.

Our Option 2 school is situated in a prosperous area near the university, giving you the chance to meet local students. Both schools offer Spanish & Salsa courses. Stay in host families, hotels, shared or private apartments. You can divide your Spanish course between Santo Domingo & Sosua experiencing two sides of this beautiful country.
